

LOCAL NEWS.

THE STANTON CONFERENCE.—The Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church, which had been in session at Stanton, Va., for nearly two weeks, finally adjourned on Monday. The following are the appointments for the ensuing year of the Washington and Potomac districts:

Washington District.—L. F. Morgan, P. E.—Washington city, Foundry—W. B. Edwards; Wesley Chapel, J. A. McCauley, East Washington, John L. Latham; McKendree Church, W. M. D. Ryan; Metropolitan, S. S. Rossell; Waugh Chapel, J. R. Ellinger; Ryland, J. H. Coombs; Union, H. C. Westwood; Gorschuch Chapel, J. W. Cornelius; Fletcher and Providence, S. M. Dickson; Asbury and Mt. Zion, J. H. Ryland; Ebenezer, (to be supplied.) Patapsco—G. M. Goheen. Patapsco Circuit—J. W. Hoover, G. M. R. Kramer; Rockville—T. A. Morgan, W. Prentiss; Howard—S. V. Leach; Patuxent—J. N. Davis, J. H. Swope; Elkridge—W. E. Magruder, Chladenburg—S. S. Cassidy, W. K. Boyle. Woodville—A. S. Hank, Henry N. Sipes, Chaplain to the United States Penitentiary.

Potomac District.—B. N. Brown, P. E.—Alexandria—E. P. Phelps, J. H. M. Lemon. Georgetown—N. J. P. Morgan, W. O. Lumsden. W. Georgetown and Tennyson—S. R. Murphy. Fairfax—R. M. Lippcomb, J. H. Beckwith. East Fairfax—C. F. Lintbicum. Charles—C. Parkison, G. H. Zimmerman. Frederickburg—Samuel Rodgers; Stafford—J. R. Greenwell, Montgomery—J. L. Gilbert, S. H. Cummings. St. Mary's—John W. Start, H. McNamee. Leesburg—Samuel Cornelius. Loudoun—F. H. Richey, J. Landstreet, W. V. Tudor. Warrenton—Thad. B. McFall. Rebekah—Bennett H. Smith.

RECRUITS FOR THE SOUTH.—We hear it rumored that two recruiting officers of the Confederate army are in the city, and have been quite busy for a few days past in enlisting and sending off a number of men to the South. If they will only confine their business to such persons as they have heretofore, our citizens will have no cause for regret. So far, we believe some twenty or thirty have enlisted, who, we apprehend, will wish themselves back before many days. As to their character, many of their names have been frequently upon our magistrates' dockets, and, if we mistake not, for some of their indictments are pending in our Criminal Court.

PARADES.—Company I, Second Dragoons, commanded by Captain William T. Magruder, were out yesterday morning on parade, and presented, as they usually do, a very fine appearance. During the morning they were exercised in the cavalry tactics, and performed many intricate movements in an excellent manner, before quite a large number of spectators on the Monument grounds.

Captain Griffin's Light Battery during the day also paraded through some of our principal streets, executing on their route several maneuvers in a superior manner, notwithstanding they were much pressed for room.

STEAMER MONTICELLO.—The steamer Monticello arrived at the Western wharves on Monday, with a large freight. Her list of consignees is very large, numbering one hundred and twenty, among whom are nearly all of our principal business men. We regret that we are not able to publish it to-day. She sailed again yesterday for New York, with a very good freight, including about 2,000 barrels of flour.

A NEW PAPER.—By the advertisement in another column, it will be seen that a new weekly paper, to be styled the Sunday Morning Chronicle, under the proprietorship of James Sheridan & Co., is about to be started in this city. There is always room for a good paper, and, from our knowledge of those engaged in this enterprise, we have every reason to believe that this will be such a one.

CENTRE MARKET.—The market yesterday presented quite a lively appearance. There was a decided improvement in both quantity and quality, and purchasers were quite numerous. Owing to the high winds which have prevailed of late, the supply of fish is rather more scarce than is wont at this season of the year; but should the present fine weather continue, we may soon expect to find them very plentiful.

EASTER BALL.—Companies A and B, Washington Light Infantry, are making great preparations for their Easter Ball, which comes off at their new armory, next Monday evening. They intend throwing open both rooms on the occasion, and it will, no doubt, be a very pleasant affair.

FUNERAL.—Yesterday afternoon, the funeral of Private Burns, of the Marine Corps, who died on the evening previous, took place from the Marine barracks. The remains were covered with the American flag, and were followed to their last resting-place by the members of his company, preceded by a corporal's guard and martial music. Private Burns, it will be remembered, was one of the martyrs who were wounded at the "Bloody Monday" riot on Seventh street, some four years since.

A MISTAKE.—About half past seven o'clock last evening, a funny mistake occurred at the Guardhouse. As the guards were gathering, preparatory to going on duty for the night, two gentlemen, who mistook the place for the Theatre, walked up to the guards, and remarked, "Well, boys, what's the play to-night?" One of the guards answered, that they were up to any kind of play that might come up. They entered the magistrate's room, one of them going through the building, while the other stopped at the justice's desk, and repeated his inquiry. He was there answered that the "Sea of Ice" was to be produced at the Theatre, but an afterpiece would be performed there in the morning. By this time the exploring gentleman had returned, and made the other aware of their mistake, when a hearty laugh ensued, after which they were directed to the Theatre.

NEUTRANCE.—The attention of the proper authorities is called to the condition of Massachusetts avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets. The effluvia arising from the slops and rubbish daily thrown out on the street, renders it almost impossible to pass without inconvenience.

PERSONAL.—Horace Greeley, N. Y., is at the National.

Hons. J. Moorhead, Pa.; Wm. Pennington, N. J.; Eli Thayer, Mass., and Wm. Wall, N. Y., are at Willards'.

SIXTH REGIMENT.—The officers of this regiment are drilling with great regularity, and rapidly putting themselves in condition to take charge of their several commands. They have engaged the services of Sergeant Buckley, of the U. S. M. C., who spares no pains to put them on a "war footing."

CENTRAL GUARDHOUSE.—Before Justice Thompson—Wm. Johnson, drunk, disorderly, and charged with throwing stones through windows; sent to the workhouse for 60 days, in default of security and costs. William Easton, (colored), disorderly, and fighting; workhouse 60 days. John Smith, (colored), disorderly conduct in the streets; fined $3.94.

WEDDING.—Byland Chapel was last evening the scene of a most brilliant assemblage, to witness the marriage of Mr. Geo. C. Henning, one of our most active and promising business men, to Miss Maggie Bird, a handsome and interesting young lady, and the favorite of a large circle of friends. The bride and groom, Miss Annie Fowler and the groomsmen, Mr. William H. West. The church was densely crowded, and the happy pair were almost overwhelmed by congratulations.

THE MOUNT VERNON.—This fine steamer, which was for over a week aground in Old Harbor, Little Egg Harbor, has been gotten off safely, and has arrived in New York in good order. Her cargo has been shipped on board schooners for this place.

A Little boy, in New York, has been sent to prison for 30 days, for stealing papers from door-keepers. We know of some pretty big boys, in Washington, who have been engaged in the same delightful occupation—at any rate, some of our subscribers say so.

M. Sickle's fancy store, opposite Centre Market, is now the great centre of attraction. The secret of it seems to be, that the ladies are all desirous of securing one of those "sweet-looking" bonnets which he has just received.

For bargains in men and boys' clothing, go to Wiesefeld's, Odeon Hall.

MARRIED.
LEACH-BOWELL.—On the 6th inst., by Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of McKendree Chapel, Mr. Charles Leach to Miss Emily R. Bowell. (Baltimore Sun please copy.)

HENNING-BIRD.—On Tuesday, the 26th inst., by the Rev. J. H. Coombs, Mr. George C. Henning to Miss Maggie Bird—both of this city.

A NEW SUNDAY PAPER.

THE undersigned will commence the publication of a new weekly paper on Sunday, the 31st of March, in the city of Washington, D. C., to be called the "SUNDAY MORNING CHRONICLE."

The Chronicle will be entirely independent of party politics, although strongly devoted to the Union of these States. Our object will be to furnish the reading public such a newspaper as, while filling up the vacuum created by the absence of such an enterprise as ours. It is at this moment the market for the sale of large numbers of periodicals and serials printed elsewhere, and we entertain an undoubting hope that if the pages of the Chronicle are well filled with instructive, agreeable, and elevated reading, as well as with the latest general and local intelligence, so important at all times, and so much sought after now; its editorial columns presided over with dignity and ability, and devoted to the discussion of every question—domestic, social, political, scientific, and literary—it will be welcomed with a hearty reception, and achieve a permanent success. To this end we have made arrangements with the best journalists to contribute to our columns. Communications have already been received from a number of distinguished writers, North and South, whose names will be duly announced in the first number of the Chronicle. We have also engaged the best talent for the collection of news up to 12 o'clock on Saturday night, including the action of the various Departments, the current events of the city and District, telegraphic dispatches from all parts of the Union, etc.

The Chronicle will be served to subscribers at one dollar and fifty cents per annum, payable in advance. JAMES B. SHERIDAN & CO. Office of the "Sunday Morning Chronicle" Washington Buildings, northeast corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Seventh street.

Accidental Death of a Portsmouth Merchant.
Norfolk, March 26.—C. Y. Diggs, a well-known hardware merchant of Portsmouth, fell through the hatchway of his store this morning, and was instantly killed.

Release of the Bienville, etc.
New York, March 26.—An arrangement has been made, by which the steamer Bienville has been released by the custom-house authorities.

A schooner from Florida, without the proper clearance, was seized, and paid a fine of $100.

The South Carolina State Convention.
Charleston, March 26.—The State Convention met this day. Col. Shingler offered a resolution that all supplies, provisions, and mail facilities, now allowed to Major Anderson and the garrison at Fort Sumter, should be immediately cut off. It was ordered for consideration to-morrow.

There will be some discussion upon the permanent Constitution of the Confederate States, but it will be ratified by a large majority.

The general impression is that Mr. Shingler's resolution will be voted down.

The Virginia Convention.
Richmond, March 26.—Mr. Preston made a speech to-day in the Convention, in favor of the majority report, and of making a clear and distinct demand upon the North, with the alternative of separation. He believed that the present was full of hope in both sections for a fair and final settlement.

Mr. Wise took the ground that the guarantees offered were insufficient.

Mr. Nelson followed in a speech against secession for the existing causes.

From Mexico—Rumored Invasion of Lower California, etc.
New York, March 26.—The steamer Tennessee, from Vera Cruz on the 21st inst., has arrived.

The U. S. sloop-of-war Macedonian was at Sacrifices.

The Constitutional Government was making slow progress.

Rumors had reached the capital that a party of filibusters had invaded Lower California.

It was also reported that a movement was progressing for the separation of a number of the border States, and their erection into the Sierra Madre Republic.

The Governor of Arizona, Hon. Mr. Owens, in reply to the Texas commissioners appointed to visit New Mexico and Arizona in reference to the formation of a new confederacy, invites them to be present at the convention to be held in Mesilla, on the 15th day of March, to consider public affairs.
